

Queensland Philanthropic Orchestra

The Queensland Philanthropic Orchestra (QPO) is a charity orchestra project which this year is supporting Multiple Sclerosis Queensland.

The orchestra will consist of 100 talented musicians from all walks of life, mostly playing or teaching professionally in some capacity. The orchestra will be under the baton of world class conductor Andrew Robinson and is also delighted to welcome Warwick Adeney, Concertmaster of the Queensland Symphony Orchestra as guest violin soloist.

The orchestra will perform popular classics, including Night on Bald Mountain by Mussorgsky and Ravel's Bolero on Saturday 11th September at 7:30pm and Sunday 12th September at 11:00am at Ferry Road Studios, West End.

Standard tickets are $40, concession $30 and under 12 free, and are available through 4MBS on 3847 1717 and there is also a special "High School Student U18 for $18" rate available for the Sunday concert only from supporter ICU Optometrist on 3368 3644.

All money raised goes directly to MS Qld.
